

Cheltenham Civil Service Tennis Club code of conduct

Code of Conduct - Players, Parents, Coaches Halton has adopted the LTA formal Code of Conduct for Player, Parents and Coaches. This document should be read in conjunction with the Cheltenham Civil Service Safeguarding Policy and Advice Leaflet.

The Player

1. Players will not use inappropriate language and racket or ball abuse will not be tolerated
2. Individuals must show the correct attitude and commitment
3. When representing the Club or any other team, players will behave in a manner that will not in any way harm the reputation of themselves and the game of tennis
4. Players will treat and respect all equipment, officials, opposition and associated people in a way that they themselves would be expected to be treated
5. Players should focus on every task to the highest level
6. Players will not mess around or distract other players

The Parent/Guardian

1. Support your son/daughter and aid the development process both on and off the court
2. Allow the coach and any captains or staff to run the programme free from external pressure or influences
3. Behave in a manner that sets a positive example for others
4. Respect all officials, players, coaches and associated people and behave to them in a way that they themselves would be expected to be treated
5. It is the parent's responsibility to notify the Coach or organiser of any changes to circumstances. This includes; medical (including injuries), photo consent and personal circumstances
6. Parent/Guardian to ensure that all appropriate fees are paid when due
7. The club must receive permission from parents/carers for children to participate in all competitions and away fixtures/events.

The Coach

1. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each person and treat them equally within the context of the sport
2. Coaches must place the wellbeing and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of the performance
3. Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect
4. Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance

5. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of players
6. Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the players (and, where appropriate, the parents) exactly what is expected of them and what they are entitled to expect from their coach
7. Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. FAIR PLAY) and never condone violations of the Laws of the Game, behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques
8. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance
9. Coaches must maintain their LTA Coach Accreditation
10. Coaches will not tolerate inappropriate language, racket and/or ball abuse
Safeguarding children and adults at risk requires everyone to be committed to the highest possible standards of openness, integrity and accountability. As a club, we are committed to encouraging and maintaining a culture where people feel able to raise a genuine safeguarding concern and are confident that it will be taken seriously.

S HAWKINS
Chairperson
Aug 22